Hi The Disney Family,

Your Discovery Exchange voyage packet is ready. Use this packet to review your selected exchange details, cabin list, gifting notes, and update instructions before sailing.

YOUR DISCOVERY EXCHANGE TIMELINE

90
DAYS

Initial Crews Assigned

Your primary crew assignments are created 90 days before sailing. This is the main group you should plan gifts for.

Please review your crew list, cabin numbers, allergies, preferences, and any family notes included in this packet.

DAYS

Update Packet + Pixie Dusting List

Seven days before sailing, an updated packet will be sent with any submitted changes.

This packet will also include the Pixie Dusting List, which gives guests the opportunity to bring small extra gifts for additional families outside their assigned crew.

Pixie Dusting is optional. Guests are not expected to gift every family on the Pixie Dusting List unless they would like to. We recommend preparing small gifts for at least 10 families, if that many have signed up, and gifting to as many additional families as you choose.

3PM
EMBARKATION
DAY

Final Cabin Update

If cabin changes are submitted on check-in or embarkation day, a final update will be sent at 3:00 PM departure port time.

This final update is intended to help guests confirm last-minute cabin changes before delivering gifts onboard.

Quick Reminder

- The Pixie Dusting List is optional and is meant to create extra opportunities for small surprise gifts. You are only expected to gift your assigned crew, but you may Pixie Dust as many additional families as you would like.
- If your cabin number changes, please use the update link and Boarding Code as soon as possible so the list can be refreshed before packet finalization.

New to onboard exchanges? Here's a quick overview of each exchange type and what to expect as a participant.

Fish Extender

A Fish Extender is a multi-pocket hanging organizer that attaches to the fish-shaped hook outside your stateroom door. When you join a Fish Extender crew, you give a small gift to every other cabin in your group – and receive one from each of them in return.

Gifts are typically small, thoughtful items like snacks, pins, hair accessories, small toys, or Disney-themed goodies. Most cruisers spend a few dollars per cabin. Your crew list shows each cabin's family details, favorite characters, and any notes to help you plan.

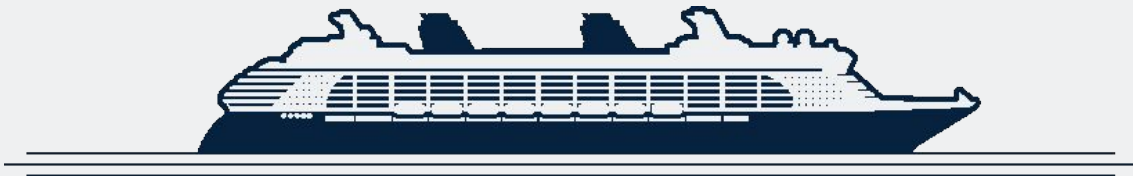

What to expect: You give one gift per cabin in your crew. You receive one gift per cabin in your crew.

Pixie Dust

Pixie Dust is a sailing-wide surprise exchange. Instead of a defined crew, all participating cabins are on a single list for the sailing. You leave small surprise gifts for other cabins – and may receive some in return.

We recommend Pixie Dusting at least 5 cabins from the list, but feel free to spread the magic to as many as you like. Pixie Dust gifts are often anonymous and unexpected, which is part of the fun. Small treats, notes, or Disney-themed items work great.

What to expect: You give surprise gifts to at least 5 cabins on the sailing list. Gifts are typically anonymous.

Ornament Exchange

The Ornament Exchange is a crew-based exchange focused specifically on Disney-themed ornaments. You give one ornament to each cabin in your assigned crew and receive one in return. Ornaments are a great keepsake from your sailing and a fun way to build your collection year after year.

Ornaments can be purchased, handmade, or personalized. Check your crew's notes for any preferences.

What to expect: You give one ornament per cabin in your crew. You receive one ornament per cabin in your crew.

Magnet Exchange

The Magnet Exchange works the same way as the Ornament Exchange but focuses on Disney-themed refrigerator magnets. Magnets are easy to pack, affordable, and make a great souvenir. You give one magnet to each cabin in your assigned crew and receive one in return.

What to expect: You give one magnet per cabin in your crew. You receive one magnet per cabin in your crew.

General Expectations

A few guidelines that apply to all exchanges:

- Give what you commit to. When you register, you're agreeing to participate. Your crewmates are counting on you.
- Respect the notes. Allergy, food preference, and family notes are included for a reason. Please read them before preparing gifts.
- Keep it fun, not stressful. There's no minimum spend. Thoughtful and personal always beats expensive.
- Update if things change. If your cabin number changes before sailing, update your registration so your crew list stays accurate.
- Discovery Exchange is guest-organized. We are not affiliated with Disney or Disney Cruise Line. Exchanges happen among cruisers, not through Disney.

Participants are responsible for choosing appropriate gifts, respecting dietary and allergy notes, and following all shipboard rules and crew member instructions. Exchange details may change if guests update cabin numbers, sailing details, or participation preferences.

If you run into technical issues or have feedback email Bairddiscovery@gmail.com

Please review the Discovery Exchange FAQ before registering. It explains how crew assignments work, what information is shared, how updates are handled, and what to expect from each exchange.

Discovery Exchange is an independent guest-organized tool and is not affiliated with, endorsed by, or sponsored by Disney Cruise Line, Disney, or The Walt Disney Company.

Thank you for being part of the voyage.
